prologue — start with date, end w/ I am Mary, this is my story.

When world turned around

Aug 1, 2016 — ~~The~~ was the day I ~~realized~~ ~~fact~~ discovered how to live for myself — not out of fear of disappointing others — finally — you know, you can know something in your mind — as a knowable fact, but never live that truth in your bones — this is what happened to me — I actually ~~so~~ had to get hit in the head — holder of all my facts + truths — in order for them ~~to~~ to be jostled loose, slowly rippling down into my body — the problem then, is, like goose bumps, ~~these hard wired truths plump up plain as day + get challenged by your heart your intuition —~~ the ripples

I was reborn that day, after the rain, on the bright side of the road ~~continue~~ days like these

+ I sail on into the mystic when no one steps on my dreams
